Hitler May Decide On Armed Action Without Waiting Second Parley

By HERBERT BAILEY

British United Press: Exclusive Cable to the Edmonton Bulletin
LONDON, Sept. 17.—Ward Price, Daily Mail correspondent, reported 25,000 Sudeten fleeing across the border from Czechoslovakia are being organized in "Free Corps" ready to march back to their homeland with German army troops. Price, who is close to Hitler said "one thousand airplanes are ready to take to the air on a moment's notice," and Hitler may decide on armed action without waiting for a second conference with Chamberlain. The possibility of armed action is increasing hourly because of the Czech government's suppressing the Sudeten cause.

Sudeten Hordes Pour Into Germany

SACHSENTHAL-GEORGENTHAL, Germany (Opposite the Czechoslovak Frontier), Sept. 17.—Sudeten Germans continued to pour into Germany today despite strict vigilance of Czechoslovak border patrols. Latest official figures placed their number at 20,000.

When I arrived here in the early morning, the border guards were keeping the otherwise dark territory lighted by firing flares into the sky so they could see fleeing Sudeten.

Opposite the frontier between Germany and Czechoslovakia runs through the middle of the main road to the town, the northern OTAWA, Sept. 17.—The Dominion government is prepared, if the need arises, to permit and with summit their recommendations to the Canadian government. Prime Minister King declared in a speech to the House of Commons dealing with Canada's attitude toward the European crisis.

BERLIN, Sept. 17.—Hitler's press, however, stressed suggestions for a Czechoslovak plot, today and repeated the Fuehrer's sharp words that "behind that warning stands a nation armed in spirit and determined to work out its rights."

Unemployment and Relief

At the end of last week the persons registered in Calgary as unemployed numbered 1,829 males and 213 females, while in Edmonton the numbers were, males 2,556, and females 296. On this showing Edmonton is now the chief centre of unemployment in the province, with upwards of fifty per cent more persons idle here than in Calgary.

But the latter city still holds place as the chief centre of unemployment relief, and draws a relief grant of $63,450 per month from the Government while Edmonton receives $32,610. These allocations were made some time ago, and were based on the numbers that were on relief in the two cities.

It might be worth while for the Edmonton council to open up and see whether the wide spread between the grants is justified by present day facts. The very much larger number registered as unemployed in Edmonton suggests that this city may now be entitled to more relief money, than it is getting.

From the Outside

Mr. Henlein tells the world in a statement to the press that all responsibility for bloodshed should it occur, will rest with the Czech Government, the Sudeten Germans having "kept superhuman discipline and patience to the very last moment."

The Government's version is that Mr. Henlein and his followers exercised their discipline and patience by importing machine guns from Germany, shooting policemen, raiding barracks, and defying the properly constituted authority.

As usual when excitement runs high and more or less fighting is going on, the "authenticated" despatches are too heavily freighted with partisanship, passion and propaganda to be accepted at face value. Applying the discount experience shows to be necessary in such circumstances, it may be assumed that neither party has been making any extraordinary efforts to preserve good feeling and reach a settlement by the processes of cool reason.

One thing clear is that Mr. Henlein's "ultimatum" to the Government on which he now stands was such as would have caused the Czech government to arraign him on a charge of treason—as his Government would have done if he hadn't skipped the country.

All-Canadian

Those who have seen the deputy governor of the Bank of Canada as a representative of the Bank of England, placed there to influence Bank policy in the interests of international finance, will be relieved at the news that Mr. Osborne has resigned and has been succeeded by a Canadian, who was in the direct line of succession.

Whatever else it may signify, this means that the central bank of the Dominion is now entirely Canadian in respect to its governing body. To assume that the change was necessary to a change in Bank policy would be cruel, for Mr. Osborne resigned under circumstances which provide a sufficient explanation of why he should desire to return to England.

Now that the Bank is owned outright by the Government and therefore beyond any doubt or possibility subject to direction by parliament, it makes little difference who the executive comes from so long as they come from heaven. The House of Commons is the real board of directors, and will determine what lines of policy are to be followed.

The members of parliament, not the officers of the Bank, are the parties to whom praise or blame is due for the part the Bank plays in the regulation of currency, the control of credit, and the operations of public finance.

Security Gone

The situation now existing in Europe must be highly satisfactory to Mme. Mussolini and Hitler. With the exception that France, Russia and Britain are apparently standing together to save Czechoslovakia from vivisection.

Aside from this, there is no semblance or prospect of concerted action among the nations to thwart the plans of the dictators or to make common cause against actual aggression. Collective security is gone. And the disappearance of collective security means that the aggressors may make piecemeal conquest of smaller states as opportunity offers.

It was for this the allied dictators plotted to undermine the authority of the League of Nations, destroy its prestige, and frighten the smaller nations into repudiation of their covenanted obligations. And—except as to France, Russia and Britain—there have succeeded.

These three powers are now doing on behalf of Czechoslovakia what the League was supposed to do on behalf of all its members. To that extent they are taking a League job. But what assurance have the other small nations that these Powers would do as much for them? None whatever.

There must be some serious thinking these days in the capitals of the states which allowed themselves to be intimidated into scuttling the covenant, and thereby depriving the League of the power it had to protect them against the fate that had been planned for Czechoslovakia. Since they would not stand together for collective security they now have no security at all.

Editorial Notes

Of course a war scare is a reprehensible thing, but you can't prove it to the farmer who unloaded his wheat on Thursday.

Stocks went up on both sides of the Atlantic when Mr. Chamberlain flew across to talk to Mr. Hitler, but Lloyd George cancelled all war risk insurance contracts. It seems to be Lloyd George against the world.

Mr. Cobb having speeded along the Utah Flats at 350.2 miles per hour, Capt. Eyston went out next day and showed him how to travel 357.5 miles per hour. It seems to be Mr. Cobb's turn to move.

A Quebec official says the Gaspé peninsula has been entirely cleared of snow. More inauspicious tourist propaganda aimed to coax the hay fever addicts of the continent down that way when summer comes again.

Fifty Years Ago

From the Files of The Edmonton Bulletin

Last summer the Government telegraphed to private parties the wire on the standard spur line from Leduc station to Edmonton, which closely follows the Calgary trail. The wire was laid in the ground in the class of 1890. PHILOSOPHER almost seven feet tall. His father was 70 years of age when this brilliant son was born. His mother was a girl of fifteen. For three decades old Mr. Philosopher had a son for a daughter, doomed. Nine daughters in succession were born to him. He waited till hope of further children was vain, then divorced his old wife and took the fourteen year old bride, who became the mother of his son.

As he grew in manhood and attained rank as a scholar, Kung took to politics in his native state of Lu. It was the golden era of China's splendor, and Lu yearned to take in an age of peace and plenty. father is dead, and he is the son of the Emperor." The Emperor, who was the son of Lu, made a just treaty which he regarded for Lu the provinces that previous governors had lost. He lowered taxes; he dispensed justice. For a time he was hailed as the people's champion.

GABLE, LOY,
TRACY STARS
IN TEST PILOT

Most Modern Of Heroes
Glorified In Big Air
Picture

The most modern of heroes, airplane test pilots, are glorified in "Test Pilot," which stars Clark Gable, Myrna Loy and Spencer Tracy, with Lionel Barrymore heading a major supporting cast.

It opens today at the New Dreamland theatre and will be shown Monday and Tuesday, as well.

The picture is an interesting epic. Entwistle Theatres, Ltd., have booked three others of the season's most outstanding films. For two days, Saturday, September 21 and Sunday, September 22, a double feature will be shown, Laurel and Hardy in "The Music Box" and Powell, O'Brien and Priscilla Lane in "Cowboy from Brooklyn."

LIVES OF MEN

"Test Pilot," based on an original story by George W. Woods, and giving an intimate insight into the lives of men who dare death to save the world, has been acclaimed by critics. It has been acclaimed by aviation experts, military and civil, to be the truest picture of aviation ever made.

Clark Gable plays the title role as a daring aviator, willing to risk life and limb for a job he loves. Living every minute of his life to the limit, existing on "borrowed time."

Myrna Loy plays an unsophisticated farm girl who marries the aviator and, after a year of courtship, battling the uneven lure of the sky in a battle to win the love of her husband.

HAS DOUBLE DUTY

Spencer Tracy, as the best mechanic in the business, takes care of Gable's plane and takes care of Gable's wife, too, when that is almost too much for one man.

Lionel Barrymore is given the irrevocable role of an aircraft manufacturer, who, in the end, finally persuades him to give up his perilous life.

Supporting roles include Sam Jaffe, Marjorie Main, Ted Pearson, Gloria Holden, Louis Jean Heydt, Virginia Grey, Priscilla Lawson, Claudia Coleman and Arthur Askey.

Victor Fleming and Louis D. Lighton, director and producer respectively, have given "Captain Courageous" a new lease of life in the same capacity for the new picture.

PILOTS UNKNOWN

Gable appears as a test pilot, taking a record-breaking attempt in a record-breaking flight. Enroute, he develops engine trouble, drops down in the middle of the ocean, and rescues the unsophisticated Myrna Loy and carries her off as his wife. Fired from his job, he joins a barnstorming aircraft manufacturer, because he insists on a honeymoon, he finally resorts to piloting an unknown job in a barn. After a hard day's winning, he gets his job back. Miss Loy finds that she must fight a new kind of battle, when the flight, whose hold on Gable is unbreakable. Finally, when Tracy is killed in a plane test, Barrymore, partner Gable, returns to the business, goes back to the army from whence he came and puts his talents to work for his country.

Loosens Wires
When You Sing
Near Airplane

If you want to sing near an airplane you have to loosen the strut and guy wire that hold the wings together. Otherwise you'll get an echo. Director Victor Fleming added that bit of information to the list of "Test Pilot," aviation epic current at the Dreamland Theatre. Myrna Loy, Clark Gable and Spencer Tracy star in the picture, which is set in an airplane hangar. Their song is interrupted by a dramatic pause as news of a plane crash is received. At the same time the intense stillness was marred by a curious humming noise, which was the sound of the airplane. Necessarily stretched to absolute tautness, the guy wires between the wings were acting as tuning forks, picking up certain notes of the trio's song and buzzing like a harp.

2,000 Canadian
Auto Workers
Without Jobs

WINDSOR, Ont., Sept. 17.—About 2,000 men from the Canadian branch of the United Auto Workers, affiliated with the Chrysler Corporation of Canada, Ltd., Windsor plant, have been laid off. The Canadian Automobile Workers of America strike called Wednesday at the Briggs Body Company in Detroit. Hodas reported that 1,000 men here have been laid off by the striking Briggs workers. In addition, 7,000 men in the plant, which is owned by the Chrysler-Plymouth factories have been laid off.

The farmhouse seen in the opening scenes of "Test Pilot" is a reproduction of the one in which Myrna Loy and Clark Gable were constructed on a studio sound stage from photographs taken of the original house.

All of the flying scenes in "Test Pilot" were made at near airports. The company spent practically the entire shooting schedule on location to insure authenticity of the air sequences.

Each Represents a Type Of

Film

The seven stirring dwarfs in Walt Disney's first feature length production, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," will not be strange personalities to anyone viewing them. Each represents a type of human being in the fascinating production in Technicolor which RKO Radio distributor to the world's picture houses.

Doc, the self-appointed leader, is self-important and pompous. He has a habit of getting his words and ideas mixed and of searching for the right words. He is a bit of a schemer and very efficient in his own mind until an important decision is necessary, when he becomes so nervous that he can't think. Happy is a fat, jolly little fellow with a pernicious smile and a Sleepy sees life through half-closed eyes and talks always through a yawn. He takes a nap, but through it all he is an interesting character. Grumpy is straight to the point, even though he doesn't know it. He is the real leader of the group, is "ugly" everything. His chief hate is "Sneezy." He is grumpy, but he has a very soft heart under the veneer. When trouble arises, it is Grumpy who acts first. Sneezy is a very good-looking fellow who is a great kick out of life. He is gay and mischievous. Sleepy is subject to hay fever.

Problems arise at duplicate which never did arise at bridge. At the latter game the declarer, unless he is a miser, wastes time or gray matter over the possible line of play, and is compelled to give declarer an extra trick. The object at rubber bridge is to "beat the declarer." The players who are lost in a desperate effort, who care! At duplicate, it is a vastly different matter. Now, giving play to a certain bid, like the Royal Flush, the declarer will come out with the altitude of the Royal Flush Glimmera in the following deal, played at duplicate:

He Started Back To School?

of the healthy, happy boy who started to school, the pride and joy of his mother and dad. Some say he was careless crossing the street. Who Shall Judge Him? The smile has gone from his face. He is no longer the happy active boy. As his school chums file past his coffin bidding him their last farewell, they say every bone in his body was broken. How he must have suffered before he died. . . . Had he lived, he would have been a cripple for life. If it was carelessness, the voice goes too great.

of the Driver of the truck that was coming down the street when the Happy Boy started to school. Some say he was going too fast. Others say the brakes were faulty. Who Shall Judge Him? This picture was taken before he was placed in a home for feeble minded—the day after the accident. They say he will never get over it. If it was faulty brakes or carelessness, the price he paid was too great.

BOYS AND GIRLS

Do be careful crossing the street. Look both ways before you leave the curb. Exercise caution when on your bicycle in traffic. If you are the victim, you will never know the sufferings you leave behind.

OUR PLEDGE • • • MOTHERS

You can never replace your Boy or Girl. Warn them against playing in the streets. Interest them that the place to play is at the playground or school yard. Caution them about crossing the street. Don't let these sufferings come to you.

of the Boy's Mother. She was a lovely woman. She has aged rapidly since the accident. Her boy was always a "good boy" and liked in the small school. They say she will never get over it. She always intended to tell her boy to be careful crossing the streets. Oh, how she wishes she had now. If she was careless, the price she paid was too great.

Men Arrested In Calgary Brought Back to Edmonton

Running in five the total number of men in the city with cases pending in the courts of justice, Justice "Hunter" Clarke, Wilfred Russell and Edward Forme, believed by police to be part of a gang preying on local firms, were brought to Edmonton yesterday night. They were arrested in Calgary.

Appearing in police court Saturday morning on charges of robbery, Forme and Russell were adjourned to next Friday. Edward Forme was given a bond of $500. Justice "Hunter" Clarke, who is face to other charges, was set at $2,500.

Those arrested in the charges are from the Great West Saddlery, Thom piano and the Borden-East Side Company.

E. Sturrock To Represent Vets At Federal Meet

Edward Sturrock of this city is leaving on Saturday night for Winnipeg, where he will represent the Edmonton and Alberta units of the Army and Navy Veterans' Association at the Dominion convention of the organization, opening on Monday.

Among the more important matters to be taken up at the party is that of obtaining a finality to the benefit and treatment questions at the convention.

A heavy gant of resolutions awaits the convention. The questions and demands of the veterans will be fully represented in terms of human life, money, labor, time and natural resources to be rendered by the Dominion government.

Alberta will be the leading hog producing province of the Dominion, according to the latest statistics of the most valuable to the province.

Improvement—The policy of some improvement, recently instituted by Hon. D. B. Mullen, minister of agriculture, is calculated to speed up Alberta's hog production. Under this policy, the provincial government will pay transportation costs from the point of origin to the shipping point of the purchaser on registered or advanced registry hogs or hogs where these have been paid. These same hogs are being shipped to all parts of the province.

It is felt that this policy will materially increase the number of pure-bred bacon hogs being accepted for registration.

Little Orphan Annie

ROUSED IN THE NIGHT BY SANDY, ANNIE LOOKED FROM HER WINDOW TO SEE ACE CHANGE EMERGING FROM THE OLD ORCHARD AT ONE A.M. --- LYING IN WAIT; SHE HAS FOLLOWED HIM TONIGHT TO HIS RENDEZVOUS WITH GUDGE AT THE OLD WELL---

YES! THE TREMENDOUS TRANSFER CO. HAS ASKED JACK TO BID ON ALL THEIR HEAVY HAULING-A JOB THAT BIG COULD MAKE OR BREAK HIM-

WHY,

I FIGURED YOU WERE GIVING GUDGE PHONEY INFORMATION- BUT TO TIP HIM OFF SO HE CAN UNDERBID JACK- LET'S GET THIS STRAIGHT RIGHT NOW, ACE-

SURE- JACK ISN'T BIDDING ON THAT JOB, AND I DIDN'T SAY HE WAS- HE DOESN'T WANT IT-

WHAT?
HM-M-M- I DON'T UNDERSTAND- EXPLAIN
FULLY-

TREMENDOUS TRANSFER CO. IS A GYP OUTFIT- GUDGE WILL GET THE JOB, TIE UP ALL HIS TRUCKS AND MEN FOR 30-60 DAYS BEFORE HE FINDS OUT HE CAN'T COLLECT- HELL BE RUINED- NOT JACK- SEE?

I DIDN'T KNOW YOU WERE LISTENIN, TOO- BUT YOU TOO, HEARD HIM--- HE'S SOLD OUT TO GUDGE- HE'S DOUBLE-CROSSED JACK--- HE'S---

EASY, ANNIE- YOU DON'T

by WILLIAM FERGUSON

LEMMINGS

ARE SMALL ANIMALS BELONGING TO THE MOUSE TRIBE. THEY INHABIT MOST OF THE ARCTIC AND SUBARCTIC LANDS OF THE OLD AND NEW WORLDS. THE COLLARED LEMMING, OF ALASKA, IS UNIQUE AMONG ITS FAMILY, IN THAT IT CHANGES ITS BROWN COAT FOR ONE OF SNOWY WHITE EACH WINTER.

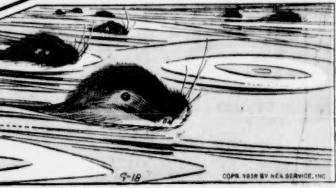

SEVERAL LITTERS ARE BORN YEARLY, WHICH LEADS TO OVERCROWDING IN SOME AREAS... AND TO ONE OF THE MOST UNUSUAL OF ANIMAL CUSTOMS ... THE MIGRATION OF DEATH.

WHEN A LEMMING COUNTRY BECOMES TOO THICKLY POPULATED, AND FOOD BECOMES SCARCE, THESE LITTLE CREATURES START A GREAT MASS MIGRATION TO LOWER LEVELS. THEY TRAVEL MOSTLY BY NIGHT AND DESTROY ANY CROPS THAT LIE IN THEIR PATH.

BIRDS OF PREY AND CARNIVOROUS ANIMALS TAKE A HUGE TOLL AMONG THE TRAVELERS, AS THEY SWARM THROUGH THE COUNTRYSIDE BY THE MILLIONS.

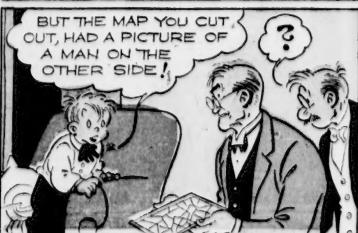

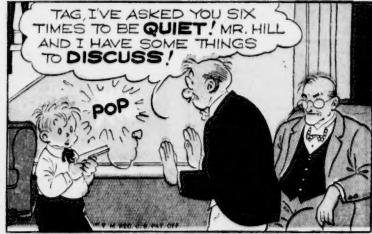

STRANGE TO SAY, WHEN THE MIGRATING HORDE REACHES THE SEA, THE LITTLE ANIMALS PLUNGE INTO THE WATER, AND SWIM UNTIL THEY SINK, EXHAUSTED.

old world of ours is full of strange people; strange animals; strange facts and strange fancies. Old Mother Nature works wisely and well, but sometimes her ways are too deep, too for us to fathom. But there's a way to keep in touch with the vagaries of nature and learn the whys and wherefores of her strange ways. Daily in The Bulletin, "This Curious
